ON SEISMIC COMPUTATIONS, WITH APPLICATIONS, I[1]

M. M. SLOTNICK[2]

INTRODUCTION

The problem of depth determinations from data obtained by the method commonly called "reflection shooting" is an interesting one and one which, very often, assumes an importance that justifies a good deal of study. It is the purpose of this paper to indicate a method